

WOMEN AND MEN: SUPPLY AND DEMAND
Conference organized by ARETUSA Network
Date: 12th of December, 2008

Venue: Hotel Benczúr, Mozaik Room (35 Benczúr utca, Budapest)

AGENDA

9.30 Opening speech by Violetta Zentai, Chair of MONA Foundation for the Women of Hungary

The ARETUSA Network: Promoting Equality between Women and Men in Europe

Introducing the European Network ARETUSA, presenting the goals and themes of the conference

by Elena Garavaglia, Associazione IRENE, Italy - Initiatives, Research and Experiences for a New Europe

Morning session led by Violetta Zentai, MONA, Hungary

10.00 Prevention of sexual exploitation – Challenging the demand side

by Lars Back, BalticFem, Sweden

10.20 Addressing the future: What will stop the supply into the sex markets of Europe?

by Angela Deavall, CHASTE - Churches Alert to Sex Trafficking Across Europe, United Kingdom

10.40 Questions from participants and discussion

11.00 Coffee break: Exchange your views, make contacts with the members of ARETUSA!

11.20 Women in politics: A matter of representation

by Mariapaola Colombo Svevo, IRENE, Italy

11.40 The local perspective: Women in politics in Hungary

by Judit Timár, MONA, Foundation for the Women of Hungary

12.00 Questions from participants and discussion

12.30 Buffet lunch

Afternoon session led by Christiana Weidel, Mountain Unlimited, Austria

13.30 Labour policies in Provincia di Bergamo

by Delia Rinaldi, Provincia di Bergamo, Italy and Filippo Vanoncini, AFP Formazione Professionale del Patronato San Vincenzo, Italy

13.50 Women and work: The situation of the labour market in Lithuania

by Dovile Petrauskaite, Women's Issues Information Centre, Lithuania

14.10 Questions from participants and discussion

14.30 Summary of the day, conclusions and farewell statements